UCMP Graduate Student Awards
APPLICATION for FELLOWSHIP SUPPORT 2013–2014

NOTE: You should submit your application using this pdf—you may not submit your application in any other way.

1) Name:

2) Email address:

3) Year of entry into the IB graduate program:

4) Provide a concise description of your dissertation research, focusing on the overall hypotheses, the approach to testing them, and their importance to major questions in the field. Include an explanation of how your proposed research fits in with the mission of UCMP, and make an explicit link between the proposed research and paleontology. (Limit 300 words)

5) Describe what activities you will pursue over the semester if awarded a Fellowship. Describe why the time free from GSI and GSR responsibilities is important at this stage of your career. (Limit of 300 words)

6) Indicate how you have contributed to/participated in the UCMP community over the last year. Activities might include: mentored undergraduates in research or curation of the collections; trained others in the use of UCMP facilities; served as a UCMP docent; hosted museum visitors; gave public lectures/presentations; contributed to the UCMP website, e.g., blog, slide show, updated text, etc.; contributed to the UCMP online collections, e.g., contributed to CalPhotos, updated data records. (Limit 300 words)

7) Do you have pending proposals for other funding to support your stipend, tuition or dissertation work for the semester? If yes, from where and for how much?

8) Please upload a copy of your CV. Make sure it includes a section describing other support you are currently pursuing, plan to pursue, or have already received for your research, including UCMP support, IB support, and external fellowships and awards.

9) Have you informed your Ph.D. Advisor of your application for a UCMP Fellowship?

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 5:00 pm, Wednesday, April 17, 2013